THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, THURSDAY, OCT. 19, 1865. NO. 286

BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

STATE CONVENTION.

Oct. 18th 1865.

Prayer by the Rev. J. M. Atkinson of the Presbyterian church.

Journal of the previous day read and adopted.

President remarked, that he had not been able to procure a flag, and hoped the will would be taken for the deed.

Mr. Purches proposed a resolution requesting Gov. Holden to correspond with Gen. Sugar, asking that such horses and mules as have been left with citizens by the Federal army, be allowed to remain as the property of said citizens. Passed three times.

Resolutions of thanks to President Johnson and Governor Holden, was taken up and adopted.

The resolution declaring null and void the ordinance of secession, to be printed on parchment as adopted—passed 3rd reading.

The ordinance in relation to the State debt, was taken up, and

Mr. Caldwell of Guilford, moved to lay on the table and called for the yeas and nays which resulted, yeas 59, nays 40.

The special order to organize a temorary force in North Carolina, to preserve law and order, was taken up, read and elicited debate as to the power of the convention to raise such a force. The example of Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi, was cited to show that President Johnson endorsed such proceedings on the part of said State.

The ordinance then passed its second and third readings.

The resolution as to the best mode of disposing of the war debt of the State was taken up. Provides for a committee, to whom the subject shall be referred, with instructions to report, &c.

Resolution of enquiry, as to what amount has been paid out for support of indigent soldiers families, and other purposes, was adopted.

Resolution calling on the Governor for proceedings had in secret session of Legislature, was adopted.

The resolutions calling on the President to proclaim North Carolina in the Union, was adopted.

The resolution relative to prisoners held in the city of Raleigh, Wilmington and Newbern, was adopted.

Resolution appointing a committee to prepare a code of laws for the government of freedmen, was adopted.

Ordinance to remove obstructions in Yadkin river, laid on the table.

Ordinance to appoint a Judge to determine State claims to property, passed second and third reading.

Special order for 1 o'clock, being an ordinance in relation to late officers of the State.

Mr. Conigland being entitled to the floor, proceeded to argue, that the Judges having received a pardon from the President of the United States, their status, as citizens loyal to the U. S. Government, was the same as before the rebellion. His only purpose was to preserve the honor of North Carolina. He was opposed to setting the precedent of removing the Judges—future conventions might do the same thing, and thus the objects of the constitution in placing the men in office for life, would be subverted. He asked the gentlemen to lay aside personal prejudices and go beyond personal objections to men, and sustain the constitution of the State, which clearly holds the action on the part of this convention, which is sought to be had. The convention had the right to abolish the Supreme Court, but could not remove the Judges only by impeachment. Pending the argument of Mr. Conigland, the President announced a message from the Governor, transmitting the following dispatch from His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States.

(The dispatch referred to is given elsewhere.—ED.)

Mr. Conigland resumed and concluded his argument. Mr. Moore, of Wake, then proceeded at length in defense of his amendment. The discussion continued till two and a half o'clock, when its further consideration was postponed to 7 o'clock, P. M.

On motion of Mr. Sloan, the resolution to adjourn to-morrow morning five o'clock, was reconsidered.

NIGHT SESSION.

7 O'CLOCK, P. M.

Mr. Lyon offered a resolution limiting debate to five minutes.

Mr. Phillips an ordinance relative to the publication of the ordinances of the convention and for debate of the same.

Mr. Phillips an ordinance providing compensation for sheriffs for holding elections for delegates to this convention.

The above ordinances passed their third reading.

The committee on missing records reported that the missing letter books had been carried off by the military authorities.

The committee on the petition of Thos. J. Hughes asked for further time, as certain certificates, &c., could not be had. Letter from Mr. Hughes, to the Public Treasurer, asked for an investigation of his official acts as agent of the State.

The unfinished business, being an ordinance in relation to what ordinances and laws are in force, was taken up.

Mr. —— offered an amendment to the amendment to the ordinance declaring vacant all offices held in the State since May, 1861.

Mr. Conigland occupied fifteen minutes in arguing against the amendment, taking the ground assumed in former debate.

Mr. McDonald, of Moore, advocated the passage of the ordinance.

Mr. Phillips defined his position in favor of the ordinance, paying a high tribute to the eminent gentlemen to be declared out of office thereby.

Mr. Dick said that North Carolina, in her attempt to throw off her allegiance to the United States, had forfeited all her rights to citizenship, and this convention must thoroughly recognize the State Government before she can become a member of the United States, &c.

The amendment was then agreed to. And the question then being on the original amendment as amended, the yeas and nays were demanded, and ordered, yeas 85, nays 12.

On motion of Mr. Settle, the ordinance in relation to the public debts, was taken up.

Mr. Grissom offered an amendment submitting the question of paying or not paying, to the people, at the election in November next.

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, asked that the telegram read from the President of the United States be read, which was done.

Mr. Moore of Wake, regretted very much that such a telegram should have been received. The people of the State had a right to do with their money as they pleased. As a freeman he should not swerve from his rights, or change his vote.

Mr. Winston was of opinion that the telegram was simply to information communicated to the President. He did not believe that the President, could have stood in our midst and witnessed the unanimity of this body, would have sent this telegram. Mr. Winston occupied the floor when the reporter was compelled to close his report.

A "Soldiers Monument Association" was organized on the battle field at Fredericksburg, Va., with —Brigadier-General T. M. Harris president.

At sunrise Tuesday morning a fleet of four hundred and fifty sail of mackerel fishermen were seen off Highland Light, Cape Cod.

THE CITY.

THE SLUNG-SHOT GANG.—Tuesday evening, at an early hour—not more than 9 o'clock—as a gentleman stepped out of Crockett's Saloon, at the corner of Market and Fayetteville streets, some unknown person struck him in the face with a slung-shot. The blow was of such force as to stun him for a moment, but recovering from its effects he made every effort to discover his assailant without success.

This is another argument in behalf of increasing the police of the city. We have heard complaints of the inefficiency of the present incumbents, but without pretending to decide that question, we do undertake to say that the present officers cannot be at half a dozen different places at one and the same moment. The truth is plain: their number is not adequate for the present condition and extent of our population. They ought to be at least twice as numerous as now. True, it will cost something to do this, but if the commissioners have power in the premises, we conjure them to levy a special per capita tax on every adult male inhabitant in the city to meet this extraordinary expenditure. We are certain no man can be found within the corporate limits who would not readily advise, much less consent to taxation, if thereby life and property can be made secure.

It is is sheer nonsense to argue that the police now operating in Raleigh is strong enough to cope with the criminals in our midst. We should be gratified and amused if those citizens who presume to differ from our view would try the experiment for a week. They would soon change their tune. Let us have the police force increased or else turn the city—"bag and baggage"—over to the military and thus secure better order and greater security. Crime grows rapidly, and the expense and difficulty of suppressing it will be increased and aggravated with the lapse of time. Let us crush it now with a strong hand.

SENT TO WILMINGTON.—A few days since, upon telegraphic information sent them from Wilmington, Officers Betts and Parker arrested two frail women from that city who had taken up there residence in this place. They had them in custody for a day or two, but yesterday turned them over to a policeman from the former city, who bore them back to their first abode.

These nymphs, it appears, formerly lived with an lady in Wilmington, who was known to have considerable money, a large quantity of jewelry, and other valuables. She died one day, recently, and upon examination it was ascertained that not only the girls, but the treasures of said ancient female had disappeared simultaneously. Suspicion immediately rested upon the creatures we have named and Mayor Dawson, being advised of their arrest in Raleigh, sent for them in order to investigate the matter.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon, a son of Gaston Warren, who resides in the vicinity of Tucker's mill, had an old bomb-shell, and supposing it would not burst, was amusing himself by driving a nail in the hole which is made to receive the charge. We regret to say the shell had not been emptied and an explosion took place, blowing off part of the youth's head, tearing some of his fingers, and otherwise injuring him.

Whether he lives or dies, this sad occurrence should operate to restrain old and young from such experiments.

PLAYING CARDS.—The commissioner of internal revenue has caused the subject of the liability of playing cards, properly stamped by the manufacturer, to an additional stamp duty in the hands of the retailer, to be carefully re-considered. After giving the grounds of his decision, he concludes as follows:

"I am of the opinion that when the manufacturer of playing cards has affixed stamps appropriate to the price per pack at which he sold them, the subsequent vender should not be required to affix any additional stamps thereto, whatever may be the price at which he offers them.

CONCERTS AND CONCERTERS.—True merit in every profession which is not esteemed dishonorable, is entitled to consideration. During a series of entertainments in this city, Rellie Wilcox has shown himself to be a master of the violin and guitar. It is not merely in those mimic conversational productions which he extracts from cat-gut that his power with the bow is realised. The audience finds in such imitations provocatives of mirth and wonderment; but the real genius of the performer is most conspicuous while he plays such pieces as "Still so gently o'er me stealing," when he holds his listeners spell-bound by the matchless, exquisite strains with which he fills the air. His execution on the guitar is scarcely less remarkable; besides his versatility of talent has enabled him to win considerable repute in histrionic fields.

Charles Dudley is famous not only for his terpsichorean achievements in masculine character, but for personations of the Fanny Elsler style. The disguise is so complete in dress and movement as to almost defy detection. In his line he has no superior, perhaps, in the South.

Sandy Ryan has as his fort bucology and delineation of negro character as seen in plantation life throughout the South in other days. He has made his mark in [illegible] and the trio rank high in the estimation of the patrons of concert.

Any one desiring such a man can see the letter at our office, and can answer it if they desire.

HEAVY RECEIPTS.—The government sales of wagons, horses, mules, &c., in this city a day or two ago, realized about $40,000. One of the largest purchasers, in conversation with us, paid Captain Garoutte a high compliment as an efficient officer by saying that he kept the stock and other property in the best possible order.

RARE CHANCE.—Our neighbor Johnson, on market square, proposes to sell a large stock of groceries at auction on Saturday next. This will afford families a fine opportunity to supply themselves with the necessaries of life.

ANOTHER RAIN—we are rejoiced to say—visited this city and section yesterday. Town and country are alike jubilant over these refreshings and we suppose the distress has been measurably relieved.

Strange Scene in a Home of Mourning—A Dead Man comes to Life.

The St. Louis Republican of the 30th has the following:

John Redman, a colored man, died (as was supposed,) at an early hour yesterday morning, at his residence, over the grocery store on the northeast corner of Franklin avenue and Twelfth street. A coffin and a shroud were procured, and the colored corpse, after being washed, shaved and dressed in the burial clothes, was laid out in the coffin. While his bereaved wife was ringing her tears out of a huge damas handkerchief, and numerous friends, "mute with grief," were sitting around the dead body, talking about what a good man he was, Mr. Redman suddenly raised himself bolt upright in his coffin, with the majesty of death in his cold face.

Moving his not entirely slightless orbs around upon the company of mourners, his clay lips began to chatter some unintelligible words about the other world. The result of this hideous performance was to upset the whole assemblage with sudden horror, the female friends fainting and tumbling into each others arms at the sight of the ghost, the men themselves caving in, and with distant eyes, rushing hurriedly out of the room. Mrs. Redman, the distressed widow, was among the number who fainted. When she came to, she ran out of the room and out of the house, and nothing could induce her to return during the day, notwithstanding she was assured that her husband had come to be conscious, and that the doctor thought he might recover. We are not informed as to the nature of Redman's disease, but are informed that he was attended by an intelligent physician, who regards the circumstance of his sudden restoration, when, to all appearances, he had been a lifeless man, as something almost preternatural.

Important Order—Negro Troops to Garrison Southern Forts—Mustering Out, &c.

Lieutenant General Grant has issued an important order which will very speedily muster out of service all the volunteer army. He has assigned the artillery for the most part to the forts of the Northern States; the forts of the Southern seaboard, with two or three exceptions, are to be in charge of colored troops. All the volunteer cavalry east of the Mississippi goes out of service forthwith. Other reductions are in progress, and it will not be many weeks, if nothing goes awry, before we shall be reduced almost entirely down to the regular army.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.—On Saturday evening, between the hours of seven and eight o'clock, as Mr. B. J. White and brother were returning to their home, about two miles from the city, on the Plank Road, they were suddenly accosted by a person whom they represented to have been a negro soldier, who stopped them by running against one of them. The party who had been thus halted thereupon remarked, "you had better knock one heads off." The soldier at this said nothing; but as soon as they had proceeded a few steps he fired his pistol at them, the ball taking effect in the body of Mr. B. J. White, passing through the left side and disabling his left hand, broke the knuckle of his fourth finger. The wound in the body is considered dangerous, but we are gratified to learn that Mr. White is doing well.—Wilmington Dispatch.

NATIONAL UNION ANDREW JOHNSON TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR:

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

Election Thursday, 9th November, 1865.

FOR CONGRESS:

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT,

COL. J. P. H. RUSS,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

The State Convention.

We have barely space to announce that the Convention has reconsidered the proposition to adjourn this morning, and it is now probable the body will be in session some days longer. The telegram of President Johnson to Governor Holden, relative to the necessity of ignoring the rebel State debt, fell like a hundred pounder on the Confederate, alias Pell, alias Worth party, and there was a general desire to make the matter a subject of prayer among the faithful before final action.

Our Candidate for Governor.

From a sense of duty to our State and country, believing we could thus best serve the people of our native State, and do most to restore the whole land to that peace, prosperity and tranquility which was destroyed by the success of the plotters of treason in 1861, we have hoisted the name of W. W. HOLDEN, for governor of North Carolina, at the election to take place on the 9th of next month. We do this, not only because Gov. HOLDEN is our first choice, and because we believe him eminently qualified for the place, but because we know he has more influence at Washington, and can get more, in the way of favors and justice for our people, than any other man in the State. The fact that ANDREW JOHNSON selected him out from among all the eminent men of the State for the position he holds, and to accomplish the delicate and difficult work of restoration, is an evidence of the high esteem in which he is held by those who administer the general government; and the impudent assumption, set up by the disaffected enemies of the government, that another can now take hold of the job and conduct it in a better or more successful manner, is an insult to the intelligence and a stigma on the loyalty of the people of the State. We shall not assail Mr. Worth as a man, or question his loyalty as a citizen, but, in suffering himself to be used by those who are evidently badly affected towards the government, however pure his intentions, he is pursuing a course evidently calculated to do the people of North Carolina a most serious injury, because the success of the faction of which he has placed himself at the head will as surely keep the State out of the Union, and continue military rule in North Carolina, as that day follows night. And we now tell the people of the State that if they want civil law and social order they should vote for Holden, for the election of Worth will give them continued military rule, with bayonets, we have no doubt, in the hands of negro soldiers. Gentlemen may talk about constitutional rights, what we have a right to demand, etc., but when arrogance and insolent assumption shall present itself at the national capitol and make imperious, insolent demands, those who have poured out the nation's life-blood, men and treasure, like water, to save the nation's life, will tell them that culprits who have escaped the prisoner's dock through mercy, when justice would have consigned them to the hangman, should be satisfied with what is given them, at least till grass shall have grown over the fresh earth with which their murdered victims are covered. Some of the Davis and Vance leaders are behaving as though the South had committed no error and been guilty of no treason; their talk about constitutional rights, equality, and all that, would have done very well in 1860, but those who have been suppliants for mercy in the last half dozen moons should not be impudent and defiant now.

If the people elect Gov. Holden and send proper men to Congress, the work of restoration will have been finished by January, the troops will have been removed, and we shall have the substance as well as the forms of civil law; but the defeat of Gov. Holden, and the presentation of gentlemen whose pardons are pending, for admission to Congress, will wreck the whole, and all that has been done will have to be gone through with again; and, meantime, the people will be subject to all the inconvenience of military rule.

We appeal to the people not to listen to the secession leaders, and not to vote for those whom they support. Every secessionist in the Convention, and every one in the State, is against Gov. Holden, and this fact should cause every loyal Union man to give him a hearty support.

Below we give the correspondence between fifty-four leading Union men in the Convention, and Gov. Holden:

Hon. W. W. HOLDEN—

Sir: The undersigned members of the State Convention of North Carolina, fully appreciating your earnest and effective efforts towards restoring our State to her constitutional relations with the Federal Government, and being desirous that that restoration should be completed by one under whose guidance it has been so auspiciously begun, respectfully request that you will allow your name to be placed before the people of North Carolina for the office of Governor, at the ensuing election.

RALEIGH, Oct. 17, 1865.

GENTLEMEN:—Your letter of the 14th inst., requesting me to be a candidate for Governor at the election to be held on the 9th of next month, has been received. I beg to assure you that I am very grateful for this proof of your esteem and confidence.

I did not seek the place I now occupy, nor have I sought a nomination for election by the people. I have been content to do my duty to the best of my ability, under the instructions of the President, and to leave my conduct to be judged by an intelligent and indulgent people. I do not fear that judgment.

My duties have been, in many respects, new, unusual, and very onerous. I had no lights to guide me in the work of re-organizing and reconstructing an American State, save the instructions received from time to time from the President; and necessarily, those instructions have been only of a general character. My paramount concern has been, so to do that part of the work assigned to me as to secure the restoration of the State to the Union at the earliest practicable period. To what extent I have succeeded in this respect it is for the people to say.—I can only declare, as I most solemnly do, that I have labored with an eye single to the good and glory of North Carolina; and that, whatever may be the decision of the people on the ninth of November, I shall always possess the consciousness that I am a faithful and devoted son of our dear old State, and that I have labored with zeal, and with what success my poor faculties could command, to improve the condition of her people, and restore her to her appropriate and natural position in the Union.

Gentlemen, it is not agreeable to my feelings in a crisis like the present, when everything dear to us depends upon union and harmony among ourselves, to speak of parties. I deprecate faction and bitter party spirit as the bane of the Republic. The evils we are now suffering, with all the calamities that have befallen us, may be traced to this source. As Provisional Governor of the State, in all I have said and done, I have known no party but the sincere friends of the Union. I am neither a Democrat nor a Whig. Both these parties were buried in the grave of the rebellion. All I can say is, I am a North Carolinian, heart and soul—"I am an American," the proudest expression that can issue from human lips; and while I hold, with ANDREW JOHNSON and HENRY CLAY, that the people are the source of all power in this country, and alone entitled to rule, I declare that the only party to which I belong is the National Union party, composed of the best elements of all the old parties, of which ANDREW JOHNSON is the head.

If elected Governor by the people, I will do every thing I can to promote the prosperity and happiness of North Carolina, and secure her return at the earliest moment to her place in the federal Union.

With many thanks, gentlemen, for the confidence you have reposed in me, and for the very flattering manner in which you have been pleased to allude to me in your letter, I have the honor to be,

Your most obedient servant,

W. W. HOLDEN.

ANOTHER UNION VICTORY!

TREASON AGAIN FLANKED.

THE ENEMY'S CAMP PANIC-STRICKEN!

Copperheads in North Carolina Thwarted!

We have glorious news for the Union men of North Carolina, and for the friends of the government everywhere. The magnanimity of President JOHNSON and Governor HOLDEN has been abused, by those who sought mercy and pardon, to such an extent that a rebuke has been found necessary, and this rebuke has come in the very nick of time to crush treason and disaffection in the State. As we predicted, some time since, the assembling of the Convention has been seized on as the auspicious moment for the formation of a treasonable organization in North Carolina, whose object it would be to defeat the purposes of the President and the Provisional Governor, and restore to power in the State those petty despots and usurpers that were dethroned by the coming of Sherman's army.

The leaders of this treasonable party are to be found in those gentlemen in the Convention who have organized to defeat Gov. Holden, thwart the purposes of the President, and make war on the government; their organ is the Sentinel newspaper, edited by the Rev. W. E. Pell, and published in this city, and their rank and file consists of those who carry the amnesty oath on their lips and treason to the government of the United States in their hearts. Their candidate for governor is Jonathan Worth, Esq., and their only chance of success consists in a hope that they will be able to keep the State out of the Union and under military rule. We call upon the loyal people to repudiate them and all their treasonable dogmas. Let copperhead candidates for office, under a loyal government, withdraw from the field and leave it to such as can present clean skirts, or let the war be renewed for their extermination. Treason having been crushed in the field, let it be crushed in the legislative halls, in the council chamber, on the stump, and everywhere; let the cleaning out be thorough and final, for as long as the "chivalry" and slaveocracy who have brow-beat and defied the government for thirty years, are allowed to have their way, we shall have no peace.

But the object of the treasonable leaders and organs in this State was to have Gov. Holden and restore the State to the programme of Davis and Vance, and to accomplish this they determined, relying upon the speculators and money bags of the Shylocks, to shoulder the rebel State debt, and to carry out their purpose put forward Jonathan Worth, Esq., as their leader for Governor. The Editor of the Sentinel, who who has been one of the main leaders in getting up disaffection and division in this State, has had a good deal to say about the dishonor and disgrace of refusing to assume the rebel State debt, even in his arguments giving the gamblers a pious lift; but let us see what one ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, has to say about the loyalty of those who propose to pay this debt, and our claims to get into the Union and receive the protection of the Government if we do assume it. It will be remembered that the editor of the sheet that leads the disloyal faction in this State and its candidate for Governor, Jonathan Worth, Esq., proposes to assume the rebel debt of the State. But the ANDREW JOHNSON aforesaid demurs. Hear him. He telegraphs Governor HOLDEN as follows:

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 18th, 1865.

W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor:

Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever. The great mass of the people should not be taxed to pay a debt to aid in carrying on a rebellion which they, in fact, if left to themselves, were opposed to. Let those who have given their means for the obligations of the State, look to that power they tried to establish in violation of law, the constitution, and the will of the people. They must meet their fate. It is their misfortune and cannot be recognised by the people of any State professing themselves loyal to the government of the United States and in the Union. I repeat, that the loyal people of North Carolina should be exonerated from the payment of every dollar of indebtedness created to aid in carrying on the rebellion. I trust and hope that the people of North Carolina will wash their hands of everything that partakes in the slightest degree of the rebellion which has been so recently crushed by the strong arm of the government in carrying out the obligations imposed by the constitution of the Union.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

Col. J. P. H. Russ.

As will be seen by his announcement in this paper, this gentleman has yielded to the solicitations of his loyal friends and become a candidate for Congress in this, the 4th district. Col. Russ has stronger claims, we conceive, than any man in the district; he has only consented to run from a sense of duty to the Conservative party and the Union cause, and we appeal to all loyal men to support him. He has adhered to conservative principles when it was necessary to defy usurpers and their bayonets to do so; and now that we are released from tyranny, he deserves and should receive the unanimous support of all the Union men of the district.

Congressional Candidates.

Col. Bedford Brown and Lewis Hanes, Esq., are the candidates for Congress in the 5th district. Col. Brown supports Gov. Holden, and Mr. Hanes supports Mr. Worth.

Col. J. P. H. Russ and Hon. Josiah Turner are candidates for Congress in the 4th district. Col. Russ supports Gov. Holden for governor, and, we presume, Mr. Turner will support Mr. Worth.

Chas. C. Clark is announced as a candidate for Congress in the 2d district.

It is said that a meeting of the disaffected, for consultation and prayer, will be held in the capitol grounds to-night. Leading rebels are expected to speak in favor of the assumption of the rebel debt, and at the close a collection will be taken up to defray the funeral expenses of the defunct Vance-Davis-Confederate party.

We have a complaint that the Progress for Williamsboro' only reaches Henderson about twice a week. We can only say to our friends that it is regularly mailed here. We believe there is no mail agent on the R. & G. Railroad, but hope there will be soon.

THERE is to be a meeting at Goldsboro, on Saturday, to select candidates for State and County officers.

GEN. BANKS ON NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—General Banks has written the following letter:

BOSTON, October 9, 1865.

Sir:—In answer to inquiries pesented to me I have the honor to say that I am in favor of granting the right of suffrage to colored men. I believe this measure to be necessary to the settlement of the affairs of this country, and have full confidence that it will be adopted. I urged this upon the Constitutional Convention of Louisiana in 1864, and in an address I delivered in New Orleans the 4th of July of this year, copies of which I enclose, so that you will find a full expression of my sentiments.

With great respect, I am as ever, your obedient servant,

N. P. BANKS.

The Georgia State Railroad has been turned over by the General Government to the State. The Commissioners for the State have accepted a proposition for the Government to take a considerable quantity of stock, machinery, tools, etc., with locomotives and other rolling stock, which had been offered them on very liberal terms. As soon as the necessary bridges, for which contracts are already made, are built and repaired, the road will resume its regular business.

The Knoxville Register says that within the past two weeks more than forty applications for pardon have been endorsed by Governor Brownlow and forwarded to the President.

Governor Andrew has appointed Thursday, the 30th of November, as the annual day of thanksgiving and prayer for Massachusetts.

This gentleman publishes a letter in the Standard, in which he positively declines becoming a candidate for Congress in the [illegible] district, for the reason that he cannot take the required oath, and he is unwilling to throw any obstacle in the way of the great work of rehabilitation. This is creditable to the honorable gentleman, and others would do well to profit by the example. Mr. Leach stands by Gov. Holden and President Johnson. He says:

"I trust the State and National Executives will continue to be sustained by the conservative Union men of the State, in their noble efforts to restore our civil rights, as well as peace and harmony to the whole country. I know President Johnson. I heard his great speech against secession and in defence of the Union and Constitution, in the 36th Congress. He is our friend. He is a wise and able statesman, and is exerting his great influence against fanaticism and factionists wherever found.

Gov. Holden has the President's fullest confidence and has labored faithfully, I think in the exercise of wisdom and impartiality, in the work of restoration, and for the best interest of the people of the State. By the aid and co-operation of the people and in conjunction with the President he is endeavoring, in my opinion to build up a great Union party; shall he not be sustained? I am glad to believe such is the feeling of a large majority of the people of the State in this crisis, and that there will be no reason for complaint by the President, nor even by Congress, in regard to the action of the present conservative and patriotic Convention; nor in regard to the result of the coming fall elections.

ATTEMPT TO SHOOT AN OFFICER AT THE PRESIDENTS HOUSE.—A Washington paper of a late date says:

This afternoon a man went to the President's House and demanded of officer Crook admission to the President's office. Mr. Crook told him he could not see the President. The man became very disorderly, and the officer put him out of the Mansion. As Mr. Crook was returning, and in the act of closing the door, the man drew a revolver and was in the act of firing upon the officer, when one of the guards on duty at the President's rushed at him with his bayonet, and thus prevented him from discharging his weapon.

By this time officer Smith came out, when the man was secured and taken to the Fourth Ward Stationhouse, where he gave his name as Robbins Sumner, a brother of General Sumner, and said he was employed in Alexandria as a watchman. The officer made a charge against him of assault and battery with intent to kill, but justice Walter decided there was no assault and battery, and he could not hold him for that. He was find $25 for carrying concealed weapons, and his pistol taken from him. Having no money to pay his fine he was locked up at the station.

ON THE CONVENTION.—The Wilmington Journal meaning no disrespect to the Convention individually or collectively, says:

We hardly know why it is that State Conventions in North Carolina differ from similar bodies in other States, but latterly they do differ in one most marked characteristic, and that is, their tenacity of life; there is another also—their disposition to meddle with the ordinary subjects of legislation. Perhaps their indisposition to adjourn finally arises from this itch for legislation.

In other States Conventions assemble, make needed or desired (not always desirable,) changes in the organic law, then dissolve and go home, leaving ordinary subjects of legislation to the bodies having legitimate cognizance of them. This has been done, we believe, in all the States that have held Conventions. But in the Convention of this State it is already seriously proposed to adjourn, not sine die, but to some fixed day. We know how our last Convention dragged its slow length along, while the people, like the impatient heirs of a rich miser, wondered if it never would die.

THE CHOLERA.—Foreign mails received at the State Department bring additional details relative to the spread of the cholera. The Consul at Constantinople, writing under date of September 18, reports that the disease has almost entirely disappeared from that city.

The United States Consul at Port Mahon reports, under date of September 20th, that he has reliable information from Palma up to and including the 17th of September. The usual population of Palma is sixty thousand, but on the 17th instant the population did not exceed fifteen thousand souls. On that day one hundred and thirty-seven deaths occurred from cholera. Since then deaths are reported from one hundred and fifty to one hundred and sixty per day. The infection at Palma appears in an aggravated form, and seems to baffle human skill. Reports have reached Port Mahon that the disease is spreading into the interior of Spain.

Reports from the Consul at Genoa, Italy, state that but few cases of the cholera have occurred there.

Intelligence from the Consul at Marseilles, France, is to the effect that this terrible disease is frightfully on the increase there. Eighty thousand citizens have left the city, and the deaths now average between fifty and sixty per day. Huge bonfires, numbering a thousand at a time, are burning nightly in the streets, for the purpose of purifying the atmosphere, which has had the desired effect to some extent.

—Charles Dickens had a sun stroke while in Paris, recently. He was quite insensible for some hours, but speedily recovered, and at last advices was quite well.

—A man in Nashville, Tenn., shot his young wife six times, one day last week, for having proved unfaithful to him. She died on the spot, one shot having penetrated the heart.

—The whole number of postal routes contracted for in the Southern States thus far, is eighty-four. The whole number of post-offices re-opened 807, leaving over 8,000 yet to be opened.

—Miss Mary Harris, who shot her lover recently in the Treasury department, is now residing in Richmond; follows the occupation of a milliner, and has, apparently, quite recovered from her insanity.

—Edwin Forrest is going to establish a school at Philadelphia for the gratuitous instruction of young actors.

—The constabulary force of Ireland numbers thirteen thousand men, many of whom are suspected of Fenianism.

General Santa Anna is enlisting troops in St. Thomas to aid Juarez. At latest dates he had enlisted one hundred and twenty-seven men, mostly Italians.

Mount Hood, Oregon, has been in a state of eruption since September 23. It is thought this may have some connection with the recent earthquake shocks in California.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged made several experiments in regard to the most expeditious mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts were successful—the articles being approved and used by the most eminent faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before resorting to newspaper advertising, knowing the strong prejudices that existed in the minds of many against advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but by the advice of friends and those who had used them my objection was overcome.

After years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the sale of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries, and this in the face of much opposition.—Recourse has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers—but merit and success have been known—such as counterfeiting large bottles at less price, censuring all preparations, and even copying my advertisements—happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in writing is to make facts known to the public and my dealers, believing, after so many years' experience, that the Druggists will discountenance such impositions, and that the reputation of my articles may not be injured by the use of inferior or spurious ones. I trust that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of the first city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

I am personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, and it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and the success of his WM WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

I was on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, and was induced to call on our old friend and townsman H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, New York. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest establishment of the kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing. So extensive, being 34 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful. Ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as well as his business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising and bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we find an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements relative to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not have were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by naming the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Age in

Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (or two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They cannot break or break, like the single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring skirt ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Opera, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. C. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana & Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

TELEGRAPHIC.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.

We received no telegraphic reports up the hour of going to press—the failure being produced, perhaps, by the storm. In the next column, however, Gov. Holden's proclamation will be found—a document of the first importance to every citizen of the State.

BAD OPINION OF THEM.—The Fayetteville News has a bad opinion of some of the "Union men" of Randolph. That paper of the 7th inst. says:

Randolph county is in an enviable state of discord and ill-feeling. The "Union men" of whom there were a great many during the war in that county, are threatening the lives and property of every man who labored in any degree in support of the Confederate cause. Many of these latter have been compelled to leave their homes to save their lives, and we have heard of one very estimable and highly respectable citizen who was forced by persecution to fly from the county and is now a refugee among strangers. These union men were what the Confederate vocabulary called deserters who left their regiments, turned their backs to the enemy and returned to their homes to lurk in the woods, and obtain a subsistence by robbing their neighbors; they compose the class of men which the Home Guard was ordered out to arrest and carry to justice, and who were a terror by their evil deeds and cowardly cruelty, to old men and women. We feel inclined to doubt the sincerity of a devotion to the Union which consists in robbing and murdering; which arrays itself against law and order, and which turns men from good citizens to marauders, cut-throats and thieves. We have learned that a small military force has been sent to that section to put an end if possible to the atrocities there committed.

PROCLAMATION,

BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been elected in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantee of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.

By the Governor: W. R. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.

AN ORDINANCE

To give publicity to the Ordinance ordering Elections on the 2nd Thursday in November next:

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained, That the Provisional Governor be empowered and requested to take such steps as in his judgment may be necessary to make known to the people of North Carolina the ordinances ordering elections, on the 2nd Thursday of November, 1865. [Read three times, and ratified in Convention the 12th day of October, A. D. 1865.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.

JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Declaring null and void the ordinance of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one:

Be it declared and ordained by the delegates of the good people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That the ordinance of the Convention of the State of North Carolina, ratified on the twenty-first day of November, seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, which adopted and ratified the Constitution of the United States, and also all acts and parts of acts of the General Assembly, ratifying and adopting amendments to the said Constitution, are now and at all times since the adoption and ratification thereof, have been in full force and effect; notwithstanding the supposed ordinance of the twentieth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, declaring that the same be repealed, rescinded and abrogated; and the said supposed ordinance is now and at all times hath been null and void. (Ratified in Convention, this seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.)

EDWIN G. READE, President.

JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Prohibiting Slavery in the State of North Carolina:

Be it declared and ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That Slavery and involuntary servitude, otherwise than for crimes, whereof the parties shall have been duly convicted, shall be and is hereby forever prohibited within the State.

(Ratified in Convention, this Ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

EDWIN G. READE, President.

JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Submitting to the qualified voters of the State, the ratification or rejection of certain ordinances:

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That on the second Thursday of November next, shall be submitted to the voters of the State qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons, for their ratification or rejection, the Ordinance passed by this Convention, entitled "an Ordinance declaring null and void the Ordinance of May the 20th, 1861," and such persons as shall favor the ratification, shall vote a ticket with the words, "Anti-Secession Ordinance, Ratified." and those opposed shall vote a ticket in the words, "Anti-Secession Ordinance, Rejected." Also at the same time shall be submitted for their ratification or rejection an Ordinance passed by the Convention, entitled "an Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina," and those who favor a ratification of the same shall vote a ticket with the words, "Anti-Slavery Ordinance Ratified," and those opposed shall vote a ticket with the words "Anti Slavery Ordinance, Rejected."

Be it further ordained, That the Sheriffs or other Officers who may ascertain the result of the polls in each County, shall transmit the same to the Provisional Governor, who is hereby empowered and requested to cause the number of votes each way to be ascertained and proclaimed through as many as three newspapers published in different parts of the State.

Be it further ordained, That, if ratified, thenceforth and Ordinances shall be the laws of the land, and that abolishing slavery shall become a part of the Constitution of the State. [Read three times and ratified in Convention, October 17, A. D., 1865.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.

JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly to be convened on the third Monday of November, 1865, and for electing Representatives in Congress, and Governor of the State:

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same. That a General Assembly of the State shall be convened on the fourth Monday of November, 1865, the members whereof shall hold their places till the next election of such members, which shall be held on the first Thursday of August, 1866.

Be it further ordained, That the Provisional Governor is hereby authorised and requested to issue forthwith to the sheriff of each County, a writ directing that an election be held for the Senators and members of the House of Commons of such General Assembly, on the second Thursday of November next, under the rules, regulations and provisions of chapter 53 of the Revised Code.

Be it further ordained, That immediately on the receipt of the writ, each Sheriff shall summon the Justices of the Peace of the County of Pitts and Quarter Sessions, to assemble at the court house on day appointed by him, which shall be as early as practicable; and they or so many as may assemble, shall appoint inspectors for each place of election, who shall be forthwith notified of their appointment by the Sheriff, and they shall conduct the elections and make returns of the polls in the manner prescribed in said chapter.

Be it further ordained, That each member and voter shall be qualified according to the now existing constitution of the State. Provided, however, That no one shall be eligible to a seat or be capable of voting, who being free in all respects, shall not before the twenty-ninth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, either have voluntarily taken and subscribed the oath of Amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Lincoln, with the purpose to suppress the insurrection and restore the authority of the United States, and thenceforward shall have observed the same or shall not have taken and subscribed the oath of Amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Johnson bearing date twenty-ninth of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and who moreover, shall not in either case be of those who are excepted from the Amnesty granted by any of the said proclamations, unless pardoned: but provided also, That all persons who may have preferred petitions for pardon, shall be deemed to have been pardoned if the fact of being pardoned, shall be announced by the Governor, although the pardon may not have been received; and provided also, that the payment of a public tax shall not be required as a qualification of the voter in the elections in November next.

Be it further ordained, That for the purpose of ascertaining the qualifications of persons proposing to vote, the inspectors may and it shall be their duty whenever the vote may be challenged, or they shall have cause to suspect that he is not duly qualified, examine him and others on oath touching the question.

Be it further ordained, That at the same time and place, elections shall be held for seven Representatives in the Congress of the United States, in pursuance of chapter sixty-nine of the Revised Code, which shall be conducted under the rules and regulations therein prescribed for such elections, and the voters in said elections shall be such only as shall be qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons, and the Provisional Governor shall give the certificate required by the ninth section of said chapter.

Be it further ordained, That at the same time and place, an election shall be held for a Governor of the State, under the same rules and regulations prescribed in chapter fifty-three of the Revised Code, and the persons qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons under the ordinance, shall be qualified to vote for Governor.

Be it further ordained, That no person shall be eligible as Governor unless he shall be qualified according to the Constitution of the State and also shall be capable under the provisions of this ordinance of voting for members of the General Assembly.

Be it further ordained, That the Governor thus elected shall take his seat so soon as the authority of the Provisional Governor shall cease, either before the first day of January eighteen hundred and sixty-six or afterwards, before the first day of January eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

Be it further ordained, That the Governor thus elected shall continue in office till the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

Be it further ordained, That it shall be in the power of the General Assembly to modify so much of this ordinance as relates to the provisions for electing a Governor and his term of office. [Ratified in Convention this tenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.

JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

To divide North Carolina into seven Congressional Districts:

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That, for the purpose of electing representatives in the Congress of the United States, the State shall be divided into seven districts, as follows: The first district shall be composed of the counties of Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Perquimmons, Gates, Chowan, Hartford, Northampton, Halifax, Martin, Bertie, Washington, Tyrrell, Hyde and Beaufort. The second district of the counties of Pitt, Craven, Jones, Lenoir, Wayne, Green, Edgecombe, Wilson, Onslow, Carteret, Duplin and New Hanover. The third district of the counties of Brunswick, Columbus, Bladen, Sampson, Cumberland, Robeson, Richmond, Harnett, Moore, Montgomery, Union and Stanly. The fourth district of the counties of Wake, Franklin, Warren, Granville, Orange, Nash, Johnston and Chatham. The fifth district of the counties of Alamance, Randolph, Guilford, Rockingham, Davidson, Forsythe, Stokes, Surry, Person and Caswell. The sixth district of the counties of Rowan, Cabarrus, Union, Mecklenburg, Gaston, Lincoln, Catawba, Iredell, Davie, Yadkin, Wilkes and Alexander. The seventh district of the counties of Ashe, Alleghany, Watauga, Yancey, Mitchell, McDowell, Burke, Caldwell, Rutherford, Cleaveland, Polk, Henderson, Transylvania, Buncombe, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, Macon, Cherokee and Clay, each of which districts shall be entitled to elect one Representative in the Congress of the United States.

SECTION 2. The election for Representatives in Congress shall be held and conducted, in every respect, in conformity with the rules and regulations and restrictions, as set forth and prescribed in the Sixty-Ninth Chapter of the Revised Code, except that the polls shall be compared in the first district at the Court-House in the county of Chowan; in the second district, at the Court-House in the county of Lenoir; in the third district, at the Court House in the county of Cumberland; in the fourth district, at the Court-House in the county of Wake; in the fifth district, at the Court-House in the county of Guilford, in the sixth district, at the Court House in the county of Iredell; in the seventh district, at the Court-House in the county of Buncombe. [Read three times and Ratified in Convention, the —— day of October, 1865.] EDWIN G. READE, President.

JAMES H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

For the election of Clerks and Sheriffs.

Be it ordained by the good people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same, That an election be held for Sheriffs and County and Superior Court Clerks on the same day and at the same time and places, that the election for members of the General Assembly shall take place, and in the same manner as heretofore prescribed for the election of such officers: Provided that all persons qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons shall be qualified to vote for these officers.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That said officers shall have all the qualifications heretofore required.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That they shall enter on the duties of their office as soon as the Provisional Government expires, and hold said offices until further provided for by the General Assembly. [Read three times and ratified in Convention the 12th day of October, A. D., 1865.]

E. G. READE, President.

JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the election of two members of the House of Commons from the county of Cumberland, and one from the county of Harnett.

Be it ordained by the Delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That until otherwise provided by law, the county of Cumberland shall elect two members to the House of Commons, and the county of Harnett one member, the elections to be held in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by law for the election of members to the House of Commons; Provided that nothing in this ordinance shall change the representation of the two counties in the Senate, but they shall vote together for one Senator until the next apportionment of Senatorial Districts. [Ratified in Convention this 17th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

MR. EDITOR:—THE FOLLOWING IS STRANGE BUT TRUE.

'Twas late last night that I was sitting, in my chamber, lonely, knitting,
Knitting on the same old stocking, I'd commenced before the war;
Knitting carefully, I was heeling—when methought I heard one stealing,
Stealing softly up the stairway, leading to my chamber door.

This I thought, and listened more.

Soon I heard a gentle knocking—hastily I dropped my stocking;
Dropped my knitting—the old stocking I commenced before the war.
Again, and louder, came the rapping—as tho' they thought that I was napping,
Me a napping? Knitting, napping? Me who never—"Ope the door."

This the voice said—"Ope the door!!"

"'Tis Sally's voice"—says I—"'tis Sally, and I know she's got some news,
And I'm powerful glad she's come too, for I most did have the blues.
"Sally," says I, "Sally, howdye?" "What's the news? Do have a chair?"
"Glorious news, my Peggy darling—glorious news from Market Square,"

"From Shepherd's Store in Market Square."

At Shepherd's Store, they've got new shoes—such bran new, laced up, tasseled beauties.
Morocco, kid, and patent leather—Congress gaiters, toe-tipped bootees.
Balmoral, Prunello and Creole. Mens and womens, boys and girls;
Such a sight it is to behold—they're the cheapest in the world.

The very cheapest in the world.

And Peggy, dear, they've got new hats—military and civilian.
All the style of Frenchy fashion—a la Emp'reur Maximillian.
And I told my husband, Johnny, "throw aside that rusty beaver."
"Go to Shepherd's—market square—get a hat you gay deceiver,

Get a hat, and burn your beaver."

Well, Peg—John went to market square—he's just got back—rigged up so gay,
A bran new suit from top to toe—and cheap as dirt, for ready pay:
And I advise you, Peggy darling—to give what cash you've got to spare,
To your dear Bobby in the morning—and send him straight to Market Square"

To Shepherd's Store, in Market Square.

"I'll do it, Sally dear"—says I—I'll send Bob early in the morn,
I'll send him straight to Shepherd's Store—I will as sure as I am born,
Good-bye, dear Sally! Must you go? Yes—good-bye, Peggy—now take care,
Be sure that Bob finds the right place—'tis SHEPHERD'S STORE, at Market Square.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows not good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM.
